DANI KNOPH

NORTHERN WILDLIFE WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 10am to 1pm (Light refreshments provided)

Learn techniques of natural history artists to create vibrant watercolor illustrations. From laying down washes to capturing fine detail, you'll learn methods for translating the beauty of the natural world such as fish, flora and birds. The instructor will bring local fish and wildlife references to work from. Participants are encouraged to bring quality photos of local fish, birds, flora or other wildlife of interest. $65 per person (4 student minimum required) All levels welcome.

ROBERT SCUDDER

REPRESENTATIONAL OIL PAINTING WORKSHOP: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 9am to 4pm (Lunch included)

Working from reference photographs (either that students bring or instructor provides), the student will learn composition & how to draw imagery on canvas (either free hand or using a grid). The workshop reviews basic elements, value color & design and the concept of "What is the artists trying to say with this painting?" All levels of student welcome, as Robert will explore each students' skills, goals & experience. (5-6 students required) $125 per student.

CHARLES MURPHY
